WOMEN CHEER WHEN COX DEMANDS LEAGUE

Gray-Haired Mothers Give Candidate an Ovation; Tour Bearing Fruit

San Francisco, Sept. 18.—Gov. Cox, in an address here today before a luncheon of business men, referred to Herbert Hoover as the type of trained mind he would like to have in his cabinet if elected.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 18.—A thousand women of San Francisco, many of them gray haired, some of them in mourning for their dead in the war, cheered as their granddaughters might cheer at a football game when James M. Cox presented to them today his plea for the league of nations as the only adequate proposal that has been offered for preventing war.

The unusual demonstration occurred in the luncheon of the San Francisco Center of the California Civic League at the Hotel St. Francis. Cordial at all times, the gathering came to its feet again and again as the Democratic candidate made his plea to end war, and then inquired whether the Republicans had any substitute to offer for the league.

Between speeches today Gov. Cox found time to confer with numerous Democratic leaders in an effort to put a little more ginger into the Democratic campaign in California, which it is freely admitted has been lagging. The apathy has partly been induced by the fact that the Republicans, disgruntled over the nominations of the Chicago convention, have themselves displayed an utter lack of energy and enthusiasm.

LEAGUE IS CALLED SUCCESS BY SWEDEN

Paris, Sept. 20.—The League of Nations, through its intervention in the Aland Islands question between Sweden and Finland, has proved its right to live as an effective means of preventing future wars growing out of international disputes, Hjalmar Branting, Prime Minister of Sweden said.

"I will not use the word 'war,' but the situation between Sweden and Finland was tense," Premier Branting declared.

"Sweden has complete confidence in the league as a means of preventing future wars, and proof of this lies in the fact that we unhesitatingly placed our case in its hands."

DISTINGUISHED TEACHER HERE

Prof. Wm. Foster, wife and daughters, Misses Catherine, Helen and Wilhelmina, of Princeton, N. J., spent from Wednesday until Friday with Prof. Foster's brother, Mr. Isaac Foster, and Mrs. Foster and his sister, Mrs. R. D. Bennett, and Rev. Bennett. Prof. Foster was born and reared here and received his preliminary education at Hartford College. He later received degrees from some of the noted schools of our country and for more than fifteen years has been a teacher in Princeton University. His teaching now is confined to lectures in Chemistry.

MR. J. C. ILLER IN BATTLE CREEK SANITARIUM

Word has been received here that Mr. J. C. Iller, formerly Mayor of Hartford, but now a citizen of Louisville, has been taking treatment in the Sanitarium at Battle Creek, Michigan during the past two weeks. He is improving and will probably return to his home before the end of September.

U. S. FARM FEDERATION OPPOSES PRICE FIXING

Chicago, Sept. 20.—The American Farm Federation adopted resolutions demanding representation for farmers and stock raisers in the Cabinet and opposing Government price-fixing of farm products.

INDUSTRY CUTS ITS FORCES IN 10 LINES

Auto And Woolen Plants Lead In Reductions, U. S. Announces

Washington, Sept. 19.—Ten out of a total of fourteen representative industries showed a decrease in the number of employees on the payroll in August as compared with July, the Department of Labor's Bureau of Statistics reported in an industrial survey made public today. Figures on which the comparison was made were obtained from identical establishments.

The number of employees in the automobile manufacturing industry decreased 10 per cent in August as compared with July. Other large decreases were 6 per cent in the woolen industry and 5 per cent in the leather, hosiery and underwear industries. Increases of 3.5 per cent and 1.5 per cent were shown in car building and repairing and in papermaking.

As compared with July the payrolls in August showed decreases in nine industries and increases in five.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY KEYSTONE CHAPTER R. A. M.

Keystone Chapter, No. 110 R. A. M., Hartford, Ky., elected officers for the year at the regular convocation, Sept. 14.

The new officers are: W. S. Tinsley, H. P.; A. D. Kirk, K.; C. O. Hunter, S.; Dr. A. B. Riley, C. H.; R. R. Riley, P. S.; R. E. Duke, R. A. C.; Sidney A. Williams, M. 3rd V.; A. C. Porter, M. 2nd V.; B. H. Ellis M. 1st V.; Lewis Fulkerson, S.; Rowan Holbrook Treasurer and H. E. Mischke, Secretary. A considerable amount of business was transacted and plans arranged for conferring the M. M. Degree at the next stated convocation, the second Tuesday night in October.

TIMES BECOMING NORMAL

"Industry, credit, prices, everything seems to be trying to get back to a more normal level, and even labor will eventually undergo some liquidation."

This was the statement made by Richard S. Hawes, of St. Louis, president of the American Bankers' Association, in a recent address before the Kentucky Bankers' Association at Louisville.

Mr. Hawes said that the people were now beginning to economize, after an orgy of senseless spending. This is one of the main factors in bringing down prices, and will eventually bring back normal times, but not the pre-war prices for a considerable time.

Some months ago Mr. Hawes, in a signed statement said that for the average investor U. S. Securities were by far the best and safest. If the people will now refrain from senseless spending, and invest their money in Government securities, they will bring back normal times much sooner.

NOT SO IN McLEAN

The Central City Argus, which is now a Republican news paper complains that Democratic post masters are becoming too active in politics, in his section.

We do not know anything about the situation in Muhlenberg county, but we do know that it is not true that the post masters of McLean are taking any active part in the campaign now opening up.

The majority of our McLean county post masters are almost afraid to give a Democrat his mail. And we know of one who hides himself every time he sees as many as five Democrats coming into the post office together.—McLean Co. News.

McHENRY VS. CENTERTOWN

Fans who attended the game between McHenry and Centertown, at the latter place Sunday, report one of the best games of the season. Early in the game each made a score and the game remained a tie until the ninth inning when the McHenry team ran in two scores. Thus the result was 3 to 1 in favor of McHenry.

BABY BOY BORN

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hinselwood are the elated parents of an 8 lb. boy, born last Thursday, Sept. 16. The youngster has not yet received a name.

OHIO COUNTY DEMOCRATS PERFECTING ORGANIZATION

County Campaign Officers Chosen and Headquarters Established

That the Democrats of Ohio County are awake and interested in the coming campaign is evidenced by the fact that they already have a very good organization. Hon. R. E. Lee Simmerman has accepted the position of Campaign Chairman and has established Democratic Headquarters in the Glenn and Simmerman law offices near the Post Office. Attorney McDowell A. Fogle has been selected as Secretary and Mr. Walter H. Parke as Treasurer. Miss Kennedy Collins has accepted the position of stenographer during the campaign. Mr. J. Lealie Hagerman will have charge of the organization of Cox-Roosevelt clubs in the county. Committees composed of both men and women have been selected and it is reported that prominent speakers will visit the county soon. With this splendid organization and the assistance of every Democratic voter there is no reason why the good old county of Ohio should not make a splendid showing for Democracy in the coming election despite the boodle money the Republicans intend to scatter in our midst.

MYSTERIOUS EXPLOSION REAPS MANY DEATHS

31 Killed, 200 Injured and More Than $1,000,000 Worth of Property Destroyed

New York, Sept. 18.—A mysterious explosion in Wall Street, near Broad, believed by trained Department of Justice and police investigators to have been caused by an internal machine, rocked the heart of New York's financial district at noon today, leaving death and destruction in its wake.

Thirty-one persons were killed, more than 200 were injured, the banking house of J. P. Morgan & Co., the sub-treasury and the Assay Office were partially wrecked and property damage estimated in excess of $1,000,000 was caused by the blast.

Come At Busy Hour
The noon hour had struck and an endless stream of office workers had just started pouring into the streets from buildings in the neighborhood. Suddenly a cloud of yellowish, black smoke and a piercing jet of flame leaped from the street outside the Morgan office.

Then came a deafening blast. A moment later scores of men, women and children were lying prostrate on the ground and the streets were covered with blood and debris from thousands of broken windows and torn facades of adjacent buildings.

Two minutes later, the stock and curb exchanges, the financial pulse of the world, had closed. Panic and confusion reigned in the heart of New York's financial district.

Thousands of clerks and stenographers fled in terror from adjoining structures. Scores fainted, fell and were trampled on in the rush. Meanwhile, the noise of the explosion which was heard throughout lower Manhattan, and across the river in Brooklyn, brought thousands of the curious to the scene.

New York, Sept. 18.—District Attorney Edward Swann, Chief Police Inspector William J. Lahey, George Lamb, Division Superintendent of the Department of Justice; William J. Burns and other investigators united in the conclusion tonight, after many hours of investigation, that it was a bomb plot.

These men declared their belief the outrage was perpetrated by a band of anarchists who fashioned a bomb weighing at least 100 pounds attached a time fuse and took it by truck to the financial district.

Large amounts of stocks and bonds, most of them non-negotiable, disappeared after the explosion. Their value was estimated by one brokerage firm as possibly reaching $500,000,000.

MAJ. STRAHM HERE

Maj. Victor W. Strahm and accompanied by Mr. Geo. R. LeMahe, aeroplaned over from Bowling Green, last Wednesday remaining in Hartford until Saturday. Maj. Strahm although yet in his twenties made an enviable record in the World War. Soon after our entrance into the conflict, he enlisted in the Aviation Service and was sent overseas, where he brought down seven or eight enemy planes and was promoted to the rank of Major and made an Ace. He is a son of Prof. Strahm, of the Western Ky. State Normal School.

REPUBLICAN SPELLBINDER SPEAKS AT COURT HOUSE

Does Not Mention Platform; Devotes One and a Half Hours To Abuse of President

In an address in the interest of the Republican ticket, delivered at the court house here, Monday afternoon, Hon. Philip P. Campbell, of Kansas, devoted an hour and three quarters to criticism of President Woodrow Wilson and two or three members of his cabinet. Not once in his address did he mention the Republican platform and not more than a dozen words were devoted to the Republican candidate for the presidency.

He spent considerable time in quoting figures to show that the Administration purchased more supplies than were used by the army, and never for a moment did he admit that no one knew when or where the war would end or how large a supply of equipment and food would be needed. In many instances he made gross exaggerations. For instance, after giving the number of spurs bought, he gave the number of officers in the army and estimated the number to each officer, when in fact anyone who ever saw an army knows that all cavalrymen (enlisted men and officers) wear spurs as do stable boys, orderlies and others throughout the entire army. He also gave the number of saddles purchased and then compared this number with the number of cavalrymen in the service, when in fact several hundred saddles were used in every infantry division as well. He gave the number of sets of single harness purchased and made the statement that he had been unable to find a soldier who saw single harness used in France, when the actual facts are that thousands of horses were used singly in drawing water wagons, food, ammunition and machine gun carts. Many other such exaggerations and evasions were used.

About two thirds of the seating capacity of the court room was filled. Those present were principally jurors, witnesses and others here to attend court. There was a small sprinkling of people from Hartford and vicinity.

HUMBLE—GENTRY

Mr. Bryan Gentry and Miss Mary Humble, both of the Narrows vicinity, attended the fair Friday and while here secured the proper legal papers and were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the court house. Judge Mack Cook performed the ceremony that made them one.

Mrs. Gentry is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aschel Humble and is a popular and accomplished young lady. Mr. Gentry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gentry. He is an industrious young farmer. The newly weds will make their home with the groom's parents for a time, but will go to housekeeping sometime this fall.

"INSIDE FARM DOPE"

ADVISORY FOR OHIO COUNTY FARMERS SUPPLIED BY EXTRACTS FROM THE OFFICE OF THE DEAN OF AGRICULTURE AND YOUR COUNTY AGENT—ASK YOUR COUNTY AGENT

Federation Grows
The American Federation of Farm Bureaus is booming. The following taken from the Southern Agriculturist shows how much it has grown:

Thirty-one states are now affiliated with the American Federation of Farm Bureaus, with a membership of 928,431, which is steadily growing, with seven more states now ready to make application for membership.

Speaking of the new co-operative grain marketing movement, Secretary Coverdale of the Federation said it may be a year or more before definite steps are taken to put the plans for establishing a grain marketing system into action. All the farm organizations are interested in the project, and it is designed to perfect a plan which will meet their approval, and be effective in the development of a successful, permanent grain marketing system meeting the requirements of the grain growers of Tennessee and Kentucky as well as those in the Middle West grain belt.

Many States Hold Clip

Kentucky is holding her pooled wool. The following from the Washington correspondent of the Southern Agriculturist, should be read by every owner of a flock of sheep:

The plan of financing the wool crop, worked out by the American Farm Bureau Federation in co-operation with several wool growers' organizations and the Federal Reserve Board, seems to be receiving the hearty co-operation of the wool growers. Reports from several state wool growers' associations say that the wool growers of these states are preparing to hold their spring clip for prices that are somewhat higher than normal. Among the states holding are Arkansas, Indiana, Kentucky, Maryland, Missouri and Michigan. The sheep men in one Wyoming county, which produces several million pounds of wool, will hold their entire wool clip.

Danes Cut Expenses

Denmark is the home of co-operation among the farmers. That it pays the Danish farmer to co-operate is proved by this clipping from the Southern Agriculturist:

Danish farmers have for a long time been showing the rest of the world how co-operative marketing can add to farmers' profits. The Gruffy Danes are now showing the world how co-operative buying can reduce living expenses. Last year about half of all Danish households were represented in the membership of co-operative buying associations, and the business done amounted to considerably more than $100 per member.

Co-operation is the way out.

Would Protect Farmer

Every bit of news which shows that the farmers are getting together, interests the man who tills the soil. This small paragraph taken from a late number of the Southern Agriculturist, is of great importance:

The National Board of Farm Organizations is promoting a law which provides that seed dealers shipping in interstate commerce must conform with the laws of the states into which their shipments are made. It is impossible for states having a good seed law to protect their farmers against shipments made outside the state. The National Board is preparing to press this matter at the next session of Congress.

Remember 1861

The farmer is usually the goat. Fortunately the goat is thinking these days and he will act before long. Farm papers are making plain the wide differences made between the farmer and the union laborer. The Southern Agriculturist lately had the following to say on this timely topic:

Our government is bowing to the dictates of union labor—granting eight hour days and constantly increasing wages. All of this causes the farmers to lose money and draws upon the farmers' scanty labor supply by the lure of high wages and short hours and entertainments in the city, leaving the aged farmers, ignorant laborers and minors the task of feeding the world by working ten to fourteen hours per day.

Farming, if properly done, is the very hardest kind of labor and takes the year round through the cold, rain, sleet and snow of winter as well as the heat of summer. How can our government afford to discriminate between its different classes of labor—granting one class eight-hour days and high wages and promising them a reduction of the cost of living and virtually saying to the other class, "You work an unlimited number of hours with the most ignorant class of labor that the unions can't use, and produce a surplus so that we can feed the favored labor class at a lower cost?"

This government cannot exist, now, one half free and one half slave, any more than it did in 1861. The farmers should not demand any special favors and no other class should be granted any. All should be treated alike. Let demand and supply control the markets of labor and everything else and no one then would have a right to complain. Equal and exact justice to all and special privileges to none is the only safe road to travel.

Spread Is Too Great

The spread between the price paid the farmer and that paid by the consumer, is very much discussed these days. The farmer is anxious to secure stories of this type, so the county agent has clipped the following from the Southern Agriculturist:

The editor was told two stories the other day.

The first was told by a Middle Tennessee county agent and was to this effect: About a year ago a farmer in that agent's county had three bushels of clover seed to sell. The farmer took the seed to town and to his seed merchant and asked for a price on them. The dealer figured a bit and said that $10 a bushel was the best he could do. The farmer protested a bit, but finally sold at the price. An hour or two later he happened to be in the store again and saw the merchant sell the same three bushels of seed to another farmer for $60.

The second story was told the editor by a farmer in the same county. This farmer last winter had two carloads of hay for sale. There seemed to be little local demand, so he called up a nearby dealer and asked for a bid. The dealer told him how prices were breaking and how uncertain the demand was and wound up by offering him $30 a ton. The farmer tried to get more money, but at length accepted the offer. The very next day another farmer came to buy some hay. Farmer No. 1 told Farmer No. 2 that he had the hay in the barn, but that it was contracted to the merchant. "I'm sure he'll let you have it for $2.50 on the ton," he told the prospective buyer. "For he didn't seem to want it anyway." But when the merchant was asked about it, he refused to sell this hay he had not even seen for less than $5 a ton profit. The farmer who came to buy would not pay at this price, and a little later the farmer who grew the hay loaded it on the cars for an Alabama dealer, under the merchant's direction, and billed it to that dealer, in the merchant's name, at $42.50. The merchant paid the farmer when the check from the Alabama purchaser came in.

If farmers are ever to get a square deal in business, or a decent living out of their work, they have got to pay more attention to the marketing of their products. They must not only keep in closer touch with market prices and conditions, but must also provide themselves some way of marketing their own products when dealers insist upon taking all the profits those products yield.

LADY'S PURCHASE WAS SMALL BUT BENEFITS GREAT

Few Bottles Of Trutona Relieved Mrs. Benner Of Former Severe Billious Attacks

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 21.—"For the six dollars I've paid out for Trutona, I feel that I've received $1000 worth of benefits," says Mrs. C. Benner, who lives in Louisville at 1123 Bardstown Road.

"I'll admit that I didn't have much faith in Trutona at first, but it soon proved to be the medicine for my ailments. I used to suffer severe bilious attacks. No one knows the terrible feeling I'd experience during these spells. Some times they would attack me while I was down town, and I'd have a hard time getting home. My appetite was so poor that hardly any kind of food tempted me and my liver had been out of shape for the past two years."

"After I had taken three of the six bottles of Trutona, which I purchased, I realized it was helping me, and now, with the fourth bottle finished, the bilious attacks have ceased to occur. I haven't had a spell for the past week, and my kidneys are in better shape, too. I can truthfully recommend Trutona, to those who are suffering as I did."

Trutona's healthful action reaches every portion of the body, and performs its work faithfully and efficiently. Trutona rebuilds diseased nerve and tissues, creates a healthy appetite, and assists in the assimilation and digestion of the food. It's the Perfect Tonic, because of its merit.

Trutona is sold in Hartford, at James H. Williams, and in Beaver Dam, at the Beaver Dam Drug Store. (Advertisement.)

FORGET YOURSELF

(By Henry Polk Lawerstein)
Forget yourself and be a man,
And do for country all ye can
In time of need and deep distress
Stand up and work and never confess
You are a laggard in the van.

Throw out your line the world to span,
The good of all to be your plan;
With heart and mind of nobleness,
Forget yourself.

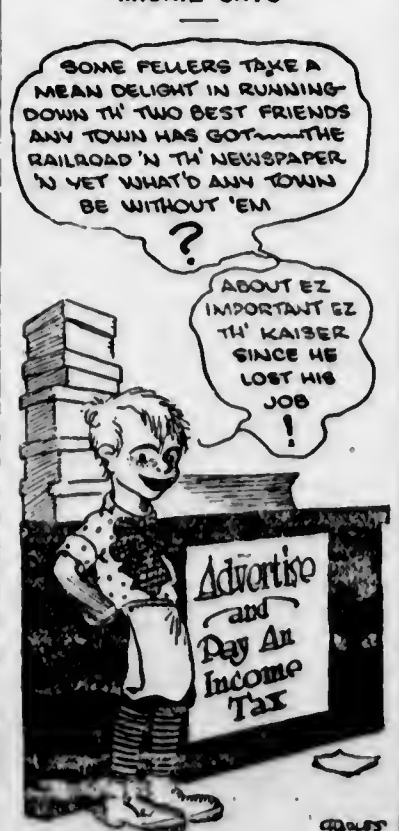

Now come and join the caravan,
With arms of brawn and face of tan,
And all together onward press,
And leave to God to judge and bless

Alike each true American,
Forget yourself.

Protect Your Child—And Others

The beginning of school brings coughs and colds to many children. At the first sign of a cold it is well to give a child a dose of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, that safe, reliable cough medicine. Mrs. J. B. Plummer, 246 Autumn St., Passaic, N. J., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar certainly is the best cough and cold remedy I ever tried for my little boy." Children like it. Good for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, hay fever and asthma. (Adv.)

MICKIE SAYS

Fordson

TRADE MARK

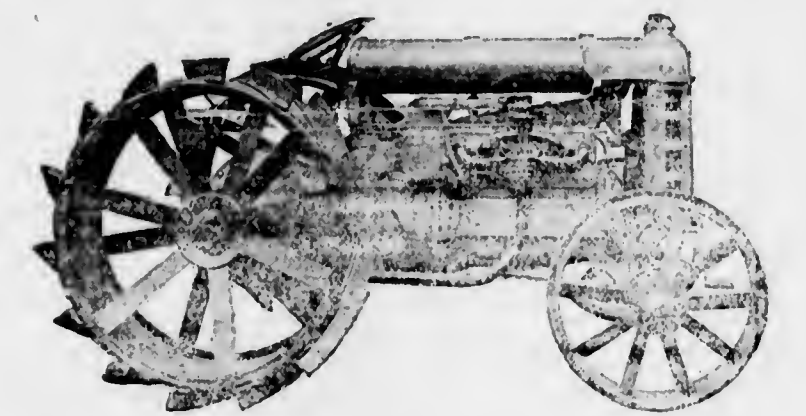

Farm Tractor

The Fordson cuts the cost of preparing land almost to half of what it cost with horses. But even more important is the fact that the Fordson saves from thirty to fifty percent of the farmer's time. And time saved—getting fields in shape to plant in the proper season; getting things done when they should be done—means money to the farmer. Besides it helps greatly in solving the labor problem.

As ever, the machine way is proving more efficient, faster, easier than the old hand way. In the factory, the machine increases production, saves labor—produces more at less cost. And that is what the Fordson does on the farm. The Fordson way is the machine way of farming. Besides it helps the labor problem.

The Fordson's first cost is low; and the after or operating cost is low. It is a compact, easily handled tractor, backed by the greatest tractor service organization in the world.

We are Fordson dealers. Not only do we sell Fordson tractors, but we carry a stock of Fordson parts and employ Fordson mechanics to help the farmers get the best results from the Fordson. Let us demonstrate the Fordson on your own farm.

WHAT'S DOING IN POLITICS

With the appointment of an executive committee of men and women to guide the policies of the campaign, the Democrats have about completed their organization. Chairman John L. Gray appointed the following men: Judge Alex P. Humphrey, Louisville; Senator George B. Martin, Catlettsburg; Judge Chas. A. Hardin, Harrodsburg; Col. P. H. Callahan, Louisville; Senator Chas. M. Harris, Versailles; Hon. W. J. Sparks, Mt. Vernon; Thos. S. Rhea, Russellville. Mrs. Samuel M. Wilson, chairman Woman's Department, has appointed the following women to advise with her: Mrs. John B. Castlemann, Louisville; Mrs. A. M. Harrison, Lexington; Mr. John Fulton, Harrodsburg; Miss Alice Lloyd, Mayfield; Mrs. Sam B. Watkins, Owensboro; Mrs. Shelley Rouse, Covington; and Mrs. R. B. Phillips, Paducah.

These two groups contain the leading citizens of Kentucky, and the quality of their attainments and character will doubtless attract the Independent as well as the Democratic voter.

William Adams, Jr., adjutant of the Stephen B. Whitten Post of the American Legion, has accepted the appointment as chairman of the Cox and Roosevelt Club in Harrison county. Mr. Adams is a member of the State Executive Board of the American Legion, and is one of the many former service men who recognize in the platform and purposes of the Democratic party those ideals for which they went to war.

Is there any connection between sixteen dollars a ton coal and the Republican slush fund? The coal operator who confessed at Chicago that he had collected sixteen thousand dollars from other coal operators to help elect Harding says he was forced to make these assessments. Are the people being assessed so much a ton of coal to help elect Harding? There seems to be a distinct relation between the high price of coal and the high price of elections.

The League of Nations isn't good enough for Warren G. Harding to subscribe to, but it's good enough for him to steal from.

Here are a few of the oratorical heavy artillery who have been enlisted by chairman of the Speakers' Bureau, Harry V. McChesney, to shell the woods for the Democrats in this campaign: Gov. James M. Cox, Franklin D. Roosevelt, William G. McAdoo, Congressman Heflin, of Alabama; Senator J. C. W. Beckham; Senator A. O. Stanley, Mrs. Corn Wilson Stewart, Miss Alice Lloyd, Mrs. A. M. Harrison, Gov. Charles A. Brough, of Arkansas; Helm Bruce, W. W. Davies, Mrs. Geo. Bass, of Illinois; Mrs. Borden Harriman, of New York; A. W. Barkley, D. H. Kincheloe, R. Y. Thomas, Jr., Ben Johnson, A. B. Rouse, J. Campbell Cantrell, W. J. Fields.

Mr. H. B. Kinsolving, Jr., of Shelbyville, is another ex-service man who has become actively enlisted in the work of making Kentucky safe for Democracy this fall. Mr. Kinsolving was captain of the Field Artillery during the World War and served as instructor at Camp Taylor and Fort Sill. He has perfected organizations of Cox and Roosevelt clubs in every precinct in the state. His estimate is that there will be four thousand young men and young women Democratic clubs in the state when this work gets under way.

It is the vital duty of all organizations to awaken women to the necessity of registering in October so that they will not lose their vote in November. October 5 is registration day in all cities of the first four classes in Kentucky and also October 6, wherever fixed by ordinance. It is imperative that every white voter register on these two days.

HARDING WORRIES REPUBLICAN PRESS

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 8.—Whole-souled and unrestricted support of Warren G. Harding, the Republican candidate for president, is proving a trying effort for many Republican newspapers.

With Senator Harding's attempt to substitute his own plan of world peace for the League of Nations, already subscribed to by twenty-nine of the leading nations of the world, the majority of Republican press finds severe fault.

On this point the Philadelphia Public Ledger, Republican, predicts that Senator Harding "will not arouse any tremendous enthusiasm in this practical nation by rallying it to take a noble stand on the rotten platform of the Hague Tribunal, the most pathetic failure in history."

On the same question the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, a Republican paper, disagrees with Harding in his attempt to prove that Poland's troubles can be traced to the League of Nations. The League, it says, is an experiment that is entitled to every chance to make good.

"Poor old Marionette" soliloquizes the Philadelphia Record. "He has tried to straddle the issue of the League of Nations and is clearly doomed to a bad fall."

The Ohio State Journal, Republican, asserts that Gov. Cox makes out a strong case in his slush fund charges that can't be answered by mere denials.

BETTER DAYS FOR RURAL SCHOOLS

Future Is Hopeful If Citizens of Kentucky Take Advantage of Opportunity Presented By New Law

When Mrs. Geo. C. Weldon was asked for a statement concerning the new school laws, which will become operative next November in the election of a County Board of Education, she said:

With the prospect before me of Kentucky's brilliant educational future, it is impossible to resist the pleasing temptation of urging that every man and woman, whether they be parent, teacher or citizen, add their interest, their energy and their support to the Cause of Education. May our glorious State not hold back, but by its every act add impetus through increasing interest in our school system.

MRS. GEORGE C. WELDON,
President of National Congress of Mothers' and Parent-Teacher Ass'n.

Kentucky has sunk discouragingly low in the educational scale, but the present thoroughly aroused interest of the State at large in schools is encouraging and will do much toward pushing us upward. We belong near the top. We must make a place for ourselves there and hold it against all time.

The provision in the new school law for the election of a County Board of Education in each county seems the best solution of the problem of rural education. Therefore, my appeal is especially to women, whether they have children in school or not. Education through schools being the chief preparation for future citizenship, our duty lies in making them as efficient as lies in our power. To women is left the direction of children's education. In a large degree, so you must exert the recent privilege of suffrage in electing to your County Board of Education good, clean, capable and conscientious men who will use every influence to create and maintain a non-partisan Board.

Since the rural school is the great hope for Kentucky's educational rise, you women and mothers must wield a mighty influence both inside and outside the home, through the helpful and organized work of Parent-Teacher Associations. Every school district finds its Parent-Teacher or Mothers' Club a solution to most of its problems, whatever they may be, for it is a combining of the forces of the home and the school for the good of the school and to meet its every need.

Women, familiarize yourselves with the new school law, then form a Parent-Teacher Association in your community, or strengthen the one already formed, for the full enforcement and right interpretation of that law as it is unquestionably the only right method of raising the standard of the rural schools. The attendance officer provided for in the law will solve the attendance problem which has always been a grave one and the appointment of the right person to that position is of vital importance.

As President of the National Congress of Mothers' and Parent-Teacher Associations, and knowing full well the mighty strength of parents and teachers banded together for the welfare of children—our future citizens—I urge upon all women of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, active interest and participation in all helpful ways, in affairs pertaining to our schools. Find the particular need of your community and meet it through a Parent-Teacher Association.

HELP WIPE OUT ILLITERACY

General E. H. Woods, who heads the Farm Bureau movement in Kentucky, urges the farmers to interest themselves in the selection of strong Boards of Education in the following:

All honor and much credit is due to the Kentucky School Administration Law. This wise and timely law leaves it with the rural population of this state to carry out its intention. One of the great objects of the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation is to work to the end that the country boy and girl in Kentucky can have just as good schools as have the city and town boy and girl. This I regard as one of the most important steps in order to stop the flow of population from farm to the town. Another is to help wipe out illiteracy in this state.

Aristotle was once asked how much educated men were superior to the uneducated men. His reply was, "As much as the living are to the dead." We want our state to have a living population. The Farm Bureau Federation intends to keep clear of political alliances, but we are 100 per cent American and stand for the support of our government in the protection of all the constitutional and statutory laws.

GENERAL E. H. WOODS,
President Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation.

The safety of this nation lies in the education of all of its people. Therefore when the farmers of Kentucky go to the polls to vote in November for the Board of Education of the County, let them see only the welfare of their children, the interest of their state, the perpetuity of their nation, and put the rural schools of Kentucky forever out of politics, casting their votes for the most honest, capable and best qualified persons available for the position.

THE CHILD WITH THE HOE

WE OPEN

The

New Year

with an array of value-giving merchandise that will speak in the highest terms of our buying organization. The merchandise that will predominate in this store will be those grades that will give you your money's worth in service. Your buying tendencies should always be toward merchandise of good style but with the service element predominating.

Lowest priced merchandise is usually the highest priced from a service standpoint.

Extravagantly high priced merchandise is frequently devoid of the service element in proportion to the price.

The merchandise of this store in every department; the service, style and price are combined so completely that they will win the approval of both the practical as well as the seekers of style. You can always figure on the best merchandise your money will buy here.

WITH SUITS, DRESSES, FURS, COATS,

WAISTS AND SKIRTS of the Season's latest models in all the best fabrics and colors, at a wide range of prices; and we are anxious to show you our new ready-to-wear.

OUR MILLINERY DEPARTMENT

As usual is a glowing tribute to the milliners art. Styles are in an unusual variety and very striking in appearance. Shapes and trimmings to suit any taste, and we are ready right now to show you.

ENCOURAGING

Twelve boys and girls of this and nearby communities and several from other parts of the county have left within the past few days to enter the Kentucky State University, at Lexington. This is and should be encouraging indeed to those who have the interest of our state's future at heart. The number in attendance is small in comparison with those who should seek higher education, but it is interesting to note the increase in the number of those that go each year. Many students after completing the Common school course or the high school course make the fatal mistake of letting the desire for money lead them to postpone the time of entering higher institutions of learning until they shall have accumulated sufficient funds. The cases where these re-enter school are very rare. When they have obtained money they desire more or if they fail to succeed financially they do not have the courage to quit and go to school.

The time for a student to enter high school is immediately after completing the common school course; the time for a student to enter a college or university is at once after graduating from high school. The future for education in Kentucky looks brighter than ever before. Boys and girls are beginning to realize that it pays to borrow the money with which to attend school or to work their way through rather than procrastinate and perhaps never get a higher education.

The speech of Congressman Phillip Campbell delivered at the court house here, Monday, must have been a disappointment to those Republicans who desired to hear a discussion of the qualifications of their candidates for President and Vice President and the principles contained in the platform upon which they stand. He devoted almost his entire time to criticism of President Wilson. We failed to hear him mention the name of the Vice Presidential candidates and he did not devote more than two or three sentences to the Senator Harding. And if one depended upon this speech for information regarding the Republican platform he would yet be in the dark. However, the gentleman displayed wisdom in avoiding discussion of a document that is not ed only for its failure to take a decided stand upon any important issue.

SCHOOL FAIRS

A school fair will be held at Fordsville, October 15 and 16. This has been an annual event for four or five years. Arrangements have been made for a school fair to be held at Hartford, Friday, October 22.
Plans for these fairs are being worked out and programs will be announced later.

TRACTOR WHICH WALKS

A new type of tractor that has recently been developed has a series of legs and walks like a horse. There are four cranks, each having a set of four legs, giving the tractor sixteen legs on which it walks. In addition there are four wheels automatically operated by the tractor engine, so that they can be lowered to the roadbed, thus converting the machine into a motor truck. The feet are shod to conform to the ground conditions.

It is said that the tractor may be used to plow, seed, cultivate, harrow, mow and harvest, rake, furnish power for other machinery as a tractor and power plant and also to act as a truck for road work and heavy hauling.

THE HARTFORD FAIR

The annual Ohio County Fair was held here last Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The crowd was small the first day, but was considerably larger Friday. Saturday's attendance was the best in recent years.
Quite a few attractions were presented, some good stock displayed and the racing program was fairly good.

The list of awards in the races, stock, farm products, cooking, sewing and other contests will be published later.

FIRE DAMAGES DWELLING

At about 11 p. m., Friday, the residence of Judge J. B. Wilson, on Union street caught fire. Judge Wilson was not at home at the time and Mrs. Wilson gave the alarm which soon brought quite a number of citizens. The fire was extinguished but not until it had burned a considerable hole in the kitchen roof and a good bit of the cornice.
The damage is estimated to be about $100. This was covered by insurance. The fire was evidently caused by sparks from the fire lighting on the roof.

JACK JOHNSON SENT TO PEN

Jack Johnson, the Chicago negro prize fighter, who has married two white women has been sentenced to the penitentiary for violating the Mann White Slave act in transporting a white girl from Pittsburgh to Chicago for immoral purposes.

SERVICES AT CHRIS-TIAN CHURCH

Mr. J. S. Hilton, of the Christian Church Widows and Orphans Home, Louisville, Ky., will conduct a service at the Christian church next Sunday morning at eleven o'clock, in the interest of the Home. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

ANOTHER FIRE

The residence of Mr. Joe W. Wilson on Clay street caught fire, at about three o'clock yesterday afternoon, origin unknown. The fire alarm was given as soon as the fire was discovered and within five minutes a large crowd was present, and the fire soon extinguished. Only a small portion of the roof was destroyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cox and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Earl Cox, of Sulphur Springs, spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Hagerman, Tuesday.

Mr. Ed Johnson, of Evynaville, spent the week-end with his sister, Mrs. A. B. Riley, and Dr. Riley.

He Sat Down Quickly.

No finer dressed party of men and women ever assembled together in this city than those who took part in the hall given by the bachelors of Sheridan to their married friends. Many of the costumes deserve mention, but the Postman is not capable of describing them properly.

The supper and refreshments were of the kind that all appreciated, and were served at just the right time by obliging waiters, who seemed to enter into the spirit of the times and make everyone feel satisfied. Only one deplorable thing transpired at the dance, and it was nobody's fault.

Dr. Newell had the misfortune to lean too far forward when bowing to a lady and tore his pants across the seams. He had filed his program and had a beautiful partner for each number, but he had to back off and sit down.—Sheridan (Wyo.) Post.

AMERICANS ABROAD IN RED CROSS WORK

United States Citizens Far Away Enthusiastic Members of the "Fourteenth" Division.

Among the most enthusiastic and energetic members of the American Red Cross are those citizens of the United States who live outside the continental boundaries of their country—sons and daughters of the Stars and Stripes residing at the far corners of the earth.

These people compose the Insular and Foreign Division of the parent organization, generally known as the "Fourteenth" Division, which has jurisdiction of all territory outside the country proper; that is, Alaska, Porto Rico, Hawaii, Virgin Islands, the Philippines, Guam, and even the Island of Yap, which came under our flag as a result of the world war. For the year 1920 this division reported 30,808 paid up members.

The main object of this division is to give our citizens everywhere the opportunity to participate in the work of the organization which stands for the best national ideals. Americans in far places intensely loyal and patriotic, treasure their membership in the Red Cross as the outward expression of their citizenship. It is another tie to the homeland and to each other. There are chapters of this division in Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Canal zone, Chile, China, Costa Rica, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, England, France, Guam, Guatemala, Haiti, Hawaii, Honduras, Japan, Manchuria, Netherlands, Nicaragua, Paraguay, Peru, Philippines, Porto Rico, Siberia, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Syria, Turkey, Uruguay, Venezuela and Virgin Islands.

During the war these scattered members of the Red Cross contributed millions in money, and millions of dollars' worth of necessary articles for the men in service, and sent many doctors and nurses to France. At the same time they carried on an excellent Home Service in their respective communities for the families of those who had gone to war, and in some regions gave large sums of money and immeasurable personal service to the relief of disaster and disease victims.

The division is now establishing service clubs in foreign ports for the benefit of sailors in the American Merchant Marine, making plans to aid Americans in trouble in foreign lands and completing arrangements for giving immediate adequate relief in case of disaster.

It is the Fourteenth Division's part in the great Peace Time program of the American Red Cross.

RED CROSS ASSISTS DISABLED VETERANS

The American Red Cross is carrying on a wide program of service for the disabled World War veterans receiving treatment in United States Public Health hospitals, and those being trained through agencies of the Federal Board for Vocational Education.

In each of the Public Health Service hospitals Red Cross workers devote their time to the general welfare of the service men from the day they enter the receiving ward until they are discharged. After the soldier's discharge the Red Cross continues its friendly service through the Home Service Section in his own community.

The Red Cross maintains a convalescent house at all of the hospitals, where patients can amuse themselves after they are well enough to be up and around. Parties and picture shows in the wards are also furnished, with occasional excursions when convalescence comes.

Great service has been rendered by the Red Cross in mental cases in identifying those who have appeared in state hospitals for the insane, and helping them secure compensation due from the Bureau of War Risk Insurance.

In the Federal Board's various district offices the Red Cross worker, acting with the Home Service Section, makes necessary loans to the men, arranges suitable living conditions, helps collect evidence and supply facts to the Board, assists in "appealing cases" and settles various personal difficulties for the men. The workers also follow up and aid all men who discontinue training.

The Red Cross agents find men "lost" to the Board, help clear up delayed cases and aid the college counselors in their friendly work with the men. Many Red Cross chapters have set up recreation facilities, and in some instances living clubs, so these victims of war may have attractive surroundings and the fun which must go with effective school work.

To the American Red Cross Institute for the Blind near Baltimore, Md., more than half of all the Americans blinded in the World War have come for training. The Institute, through the Red Cross, long ago conducted an exhaustive industrial survey to determine the vocations for which blind men could be fitted. As a result it is putting forth well trained men equipped to meet the social, civic and economic requirements of their respective communities.

The Iberian chapter of the American Red Cross, composed of Americans resident in Spain, has just contributed $480 to a fund being raised by the Spanish Red Cross and the League of Red Cross Societies for the purpose of fighting malaria.

POSTAL DEFICIT LAID TO NEWPORT EMPLOYEE

Newport, Ky., Sept. 19.—Harry E. Weltkamp, assistant postmaster of Newport, was arrested by Federal officers on a warrant charging conversion of $2,976.97 of postal funds R. L. Taylor, postal inspector, signed the warrant.

Weltkamp was suspended several days ago by order of Washington authorities, following finding of alleged discrepancy in his accounts. Weltkamp was taken to Covington, and arraigned before Acting United States Commissioner Oscar H. Rinken and bond was fixed at $5,200. He will be given a preliminary hearing Tuesday.

Weltkamp declined to make a statement. His attorney, William R. Burkamp, after the hearing this afternoon, declared that every cent of the amount as charged in the warrant already has been paid back to the Government.

SAVED BY FINGERPRINTS

Washington, Sept. 13.—Solely by virtue of the fact that when he enlisted in the United States Army, several years ago, his fingerprints were taken, Anders Martin Anderson, a native of Norway, is to-night a citizen of the United States.

Anderson came before Justice Gould in the Supreme Court to-day as an applicant for final citizenship papers. Having lived in Washington only one month extreme difficulty developed in the matter of identification. Anderson happily remembered that when enlisting in the army his fingerprints were taken and appealed to Walter S. Kaye, Chief of the Fingerprint Division of the Adjutant General's Office. Mr. Kaye took an impression of Anderson's fingerprints, compared them with those on file, and positively identified the applicant to the court. Justice Gould readily accepted the identification.

GOOD NEWS

Many Hartford Readers Have Heard It and Profited Thereby

"Good news travels fast," and the many bad back sufferers in Hartford are glad to learn where relief may be found. Many a lame, weak and aching back is bad no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with this tested remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

Miss Emma E. Park, Washington St., Hartford, says: "From time to time I suffered with a dull backache. At those times I had dizzy spells and black spots seemed to appear before my eyes. My kidneys were disordered also, and I was caused a great deal of annoyance on this account. Mornings I was tired and worn out. I found that Doan's Kidney Pills did me a lot of good whenever I suffered in this way and I consider them an excellent Kidney medicine."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Miss Park had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

Dental Notice!

Now is the time to have your Dental work attended too. Winter is coming with rain and snow which makes old Teeth ache and abscess. Abscessed Teeth or 'Gum Bolls' are dangerous. You are continually swallowing this deadly poisoned Pus. Each mouthful of food carries this infection into the stomach.

Lowers vitality which invites cancer of the mouth, throat and stomach. Diphtheria, Tuberculosis, Pneumonia, Influenza, Typhoid, Brights Disease, Rheumatism, Anemia and even death frequently results from continually swallowing of Pus.

A mouth containing decayed Teeth is a poisonous Laboratory, which sends a host of Bacteria into the elementary tract. They multiply rapidly thus gain access to the lymphatic system and are carried to the distant organs. Soft spongy and bleeding gums give warning of approaching abscess. Lady Attendant.

DIVORCE EVIL IS LAID TO FOOD

Washington, Sept. 19.—If fewer wives depended on the "corner delicatessen store" and "ready-cooked tin can food, there would be fewer broken homes in this country. Miss Agnes V. Mahoney of the Industrial Survey and Research Bureau of Washington, declared in an address before the National Conference of Catholic Charities.

"It is a well-known fact," Miss Mahoney said, "that a better knowledge on the part of housekeepers of the value and importance of cleanliness and order would go far in lessening many of the causes that are responsible for broken homes."

"If wives would take the trouble of preparing wholesome and appetizing meals for their husbands there would be a great many more happy homes."

A Word for the Ambitious Boy:

MANY an ambitious farm boy is being tempted to go out into the world to seek his fortune. If you are considering deserting the farm, you are facing a crisis in your life that deserves much earnest thought and study.

Talk the matter over with men who ought to know the right course for you. Don't decide too hastily. Perhaps your father will take you into partnership, give you an interest in a plot of ground or in some livestock that will be the foundation of a fortune. Statistics show that the chances for business success are ten to one in favor of agriculture.

For every ambitious country boy there are a dozen city toilers, sick and tired of the endless grind, struggling desperately to keep abreast of the cost of living, longing for a chance to take their families to God's great out-of-doors. Millions of men of the city are envying you this minute because you are young and on the farm. They know that the four-leaf clover of your good fortune is growing by your home doorstep.

Good, modern, labor-saving machines are taking the drudgery out of farming and putting still more profit into it. We are headquarters for the International Full Line, including Titan tractors, International engines, and manure spreaders, Primrose cream separators, McCormick and Deering harvesting, haying, and corn machines, tillage tools, P.O. plows, etc. Such machines add to the profit and pleasure of daily life.

COURT IS CALLED

PACTED AID BY COX

League Enemies Will Be Confronted That Root Has No "New Plan," He Says

Salt Lake City, Utah, Sept. 19.—Plans for an international court under the League of Nations as reported from Paris, were advanced by Gov. James M. Cox, Ohio, in his Utah campaign as a telling argument for the League.

They further confound Senator Warren G. Harding and other Republican opponents, the Democratic Presidential candidate declared in addresses here in the Mormon Tabernacle, and earlier today in Ogden.

Reiterating that the Republican League critics had failed to offer any substitute and had expected that Ellhu would bring forth a new plan, Mr. Cox made the following statement on the reported court outline:

"Today we learn that the commission on which Mr. Root is a member, has made its report, establishing a world court for the adjudication of questions according to rules of law.

"We find, however, that this court is a part of the League covenant; that Mr. Root and his colleagues, were appointed by the council of the League; that they made their report to the council, and that this report is now to be submitted to the various members of the League.

"Furthermore it appears that the judges of the court are to be chosen by the council and the assembly of the league and their salaries are to be paid by the League.

"It is apparent, therefore, that this court of international justice, which Mr. Harding hoped would be a substitute for the League of Nations, now appears as an essential part of the League, and one which without the league would have no standing whatever.

"This thing having been cut off, Mr. Harding sitting on the end, we may confidently look forward to another frantic effort from Marlon in an attempt to confuse the public and to keep both Senator Johnson and Ellhu Root, who is not only for the League but has performed valiant service for the existing League for the party candidate."

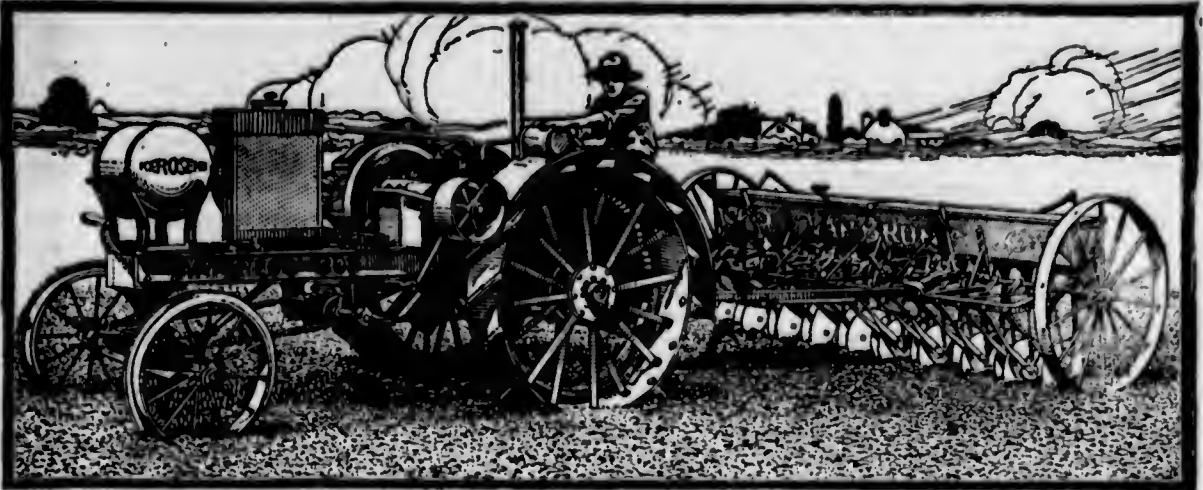

THE RESULT IN MAINE

While the result of the election in Maine can hardly cause any jubilation in Democratic ranks, at the same time it should not be productive of gloom. Maine, of course, is a rock-ribbed Republican state and the only question about the election was as to the size of the majority the Republicans would roll up. They were well organized behind a candidate with a strong personal following and the heavy vote they polled was no more than was to be expected. But the Republicans will make a fatal mistake if they take the Maine vote as an indication of the result of the approaching great national referendum.

For years the Republicans have pleased themselves with the fancy that as Maine goes, so goes the nation, but Maine went Republican in both the state and national elections in 1916 and Woodrow Wilson won the presidency. To be fair, we must admit that the Republican majority four years ago was not near so large as it was on Monday, but in the general result it would be just about as fair to take the vote of Mississippi or Texas as an index finger pointing towards national sentiment.

Until 1916 the eastern states imagined that they controlled the nation. We well remember how four years ago the Democratic newspapers gave up hope of Wilson's election just as soon as they learned that Illinois and Indiana had gone for Hughes, along with New York and the eastern states. These Democratic papers announced the election of the Republican nominee. But the vote from the western states upset their calculations. When the ballots of the south and of the states west of the Mississippi River had been counted it was found that the power of the east had not only been challenged, but had been overthrown. A new combination had arisen that was capable of dominating the nation and we must not overlook this fact when we consider the significance of an election in Maine. We have learned that the south and west can veto the decisions of the once all-powerful east.

There is another point in connection with Monday's election that deserves to be emphasized. Both the Republican and Democratic

The Dependable Tractor that Burns Kerosene Completely

The 12—25 H. P. Waterloo Boy Tractor is just the kind of machine that we like to put into the hands of our customers.

There is nothing experimental about it. Its dependability has been fully proved in years of service on the farm. Every time we sell one, we feel the assurance that the owner is going to get fully satisfactory service from it. And that means a great deal to the future of our business.

Right along with its dependability for long-continued good work, there is another big feature that you will appreciate every day you use the Waterloo Boy.

It burns kerosene completely. Its patented kerosene manifold—one that you can get on no other tractor—converts all of the low-priced fuel into a highly combustible gas, enabling the engine to get full power from every drop.

That saves engine trouble—no kerosene gets into the lubricating oil. There is no carbonizing of cylinders or fouling of spark plugs.

And it saves many dollars in fuel cost every year of its operation.

You are sure to like all of the Waterloo Boy's other features. It is simply made; easy to keep in good running order. The working parts, fully protected from dust, are placed where you can easily get at them, whenever necessary, through inspection plates and detachable casings. The engine, perfectly balanced and mounted on a solid foundation, runs without vibration—no racking of mechanism. Gears are steel-cut and case-hardened—practically everlasting. It is equipped with Hyatt Roller Bearings, famous throughout the world for conserving full power. All bearing points and gears are kept constantly in a bath of oil by a positive system of lubrication.

Be sure to come in some day soon and get fully acquainted with the Waterloo Boy.

candidates supported the league of nations will. Senator Harding of late has been lining up with the irreconcilable opponents of the league. The Republican nominee in Maine favored the Lodge reservations to the league, but was definite in his advocacy of the idea of an international combination for world peace. It is true that Senator Harding voted for the Lodge reservations, but during the past few weeks his speeches indicated a repudiation by himself of his own vote. He has definitely proposed the Hague court of arbitration as a substitute for the international peace league and is daily attacking the Versailles covenant.

Since practically the whole vote of Maine was cast for some form of a league of nations, how then can the Republicans say that this same vote will be given to a man who seems now opposed to any form of a league? To justify the jubilation of the Harding supporters it must be admitted that Maine is opposed to the league of nations because she voted for it.—Commercial Appeals.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

MINUTES OF INSTITUTE

We have heretofore published the minutes of the first day of the Teachers' Institute, and have just received the minutes for the remaining four days. We publish them below:

Noon

Mr. Howard being absent, Mr. N. B. White took the chair. Capt. Clarence Shown in explaining the value of play and military drill said interest the child in play and he will be interested in his work. Suit the games to the season. He also gave some military drills that could be used in the school room. A vote of thanks was extended to him for the instructive talk and drill.

Mr. Stanley Phillips asked to be excused from talking on school sanitation since the violent military drill given by Capt. Shown had left him breathless.

Mrs. Mary White led the discussion on Medical Inspection and County Nurse. She was followed by Mrs. Horlense Morrison who insists in the organization of Health Clubs in every town and community. She asked that the teachers and Superintendent never lose sight of the fact that correct health habits must be formed early in life. Mr. Stickles told how important it is to have medical inspection.

Recess

In the round table discussion, Sanitation and Parent-Teachers Association were commented on by several teachers. Then after another day of interesting work the institute adjourned.

Tuesday

Devotional exercise—Rev. E. W. Smith. In his remarks he emphasized the importance of co-operation of teachers and preachers.

A vote of thanks was given Supt. Howard for the business like way he had conducted the first day of Institute.

The regular work began with a splendid talk on school grounds, by Miss Grace Tilford. Badly kept grounds make bad impressions on the child. Grounds should be made beautiful.

Mr. C. K. Carson was called upon to discuss The Influence of a good school building in a community. Mr. Carson says the building should be the place for community meeting.

Mr. O'Dell says if the teachers get parents interested they will have good school buildings.

Miss Abbye Whittinghill in her able manner gave a splendid talk on 'School hours.' Small children should have shorter hours.

Mr. Stickles then gave another one of his splendid addresses which was appreciated by all who heard him. No history teacher can be a success who cannot connect the past history with the present. History is related to geography, literature, science, civics, music, art.

Recess

Mr. Bruner took the chair. Mr. Howard being absent.

Heat, Light, ventilation, as related to the school were next on the program. Mr. D. D. Moseley opened the discussion pointing out that our school houses are not well ventilated. Children cannot work properly if the room is not comfortable.

Mr. O'Dell suggested that the room be well aired and warmed before children arrive in the morning.

Dr. Horace Pendleton gave some practical points on the subject. An ideal schoolhouse takes care of the children. Messrs. Bruner, Carson and Shultz made some splendid remarks on the subject.

In a brief and definite way, Mr. Marshall Crowe and Miss Beulah Moore discussed 'Clean up Day.'

Mr. Stickles made it very plain that in the life of a nation Truth and Light will overcome evil and darkness.

FAMILY REUNION

A family reunion was held at the home of James W. Cox, about one-half mile south of Horton, Friday, Sept. 24, 1920. The following children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren were present to take part in the reunion: Mr. and Mrs. Tom Crowder of Rosine; Mr. G. N. Cox, wife and two sons, of Ark.; Mr. Orlando Cox, wife and three children, and Mr. Ira Cox, wife and two children, of Equality; Rev. Tom Cox and wife, of Reader; Mr. J. W. Duvall and wife, of Williams' Mines; Rev. Birch Shields and wife of Cromwell; Mr. Frank Crawford, wife and two daughters, and one granddaughter, of Manda, Ky.; Mrs. Elmer Eldson, of Selet; Mr. and Mrs. Ednfrow, and two children and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cox, of Horton. Mr. G. N. Cox of Ark., had not visited his father for 11 or 12 years.

At about the hour of noon, a bounteous meal was served to the enjoyment of all. After dinner many fond memories were renewed and gladness and happiness engaged in and enjoyed. About 2:30 p.m. those present held divine service consisting of singing, talks by different ones present, who gave some very strong testimonials or religious and good advice to all. Rev. Birch Shields preached from the text 1 Timothy 2:8, subject Prayer. He was followed by Rev. Tom Cox.

Mr. J. W. Cox and wife have lived to a ripe old age, his being past 82 years. Mr. Cox raised a very large family consisting of six boys and girls. One boy and two girls have passed over the dark river of death. Three of the children living could not be present.

After a parting handshake about 5 p.m. and good byes were had, the crowd dispersed realizing it was good to have been there, and wishing and hoping that all may be permitted to meet again, if it is the good Lord's will.

BEAVERS DO MUCH MISCHIEF

Property Owners in the Adirondacks Are Uneasy Over the Situation They Have Created.

Because the limited intelligence of the beaver goes no further than its own immediate purposes, owners of property in the Adirondacks are wishing that the beaver was less industrious and seriously wondering what is to be done to stop the increasing number of these willing workers from decreasing the value and beauty of this famous region. The forest rangers of the conservation commission, says a writer in the Albany Journal, last summer estimated the undesirable results that had followed the building of nearly 600 beaver dams, and found that an area of about 8,681 acres had been flooded, and something like $51,000 worth of good merchantable standing timber was being destroyed. Considering that the number of beavers, now estimated at about 18,000 is believed to be increasing about 3,000 a year, the damage bids fair to become a serious problem. Not only do they destroy valuable timber, but they are steadily changing the character of the Adirondack scenery along the water courses and altering the shore line of the lakes; yet the region without any beavers at all would not be the Adirondacks as nature made it and as those who now go there to enjoy its beauty like to find it. Time was when the beavers seemed likely to vanish, and the state took them under its protection; now the danger seems to be that they are so well protected that they will eventually "come back" in numbers out of proportion to the normal population of beavers when the Adirondacks were subject to the conditions of life in a wild country.

LONG PUZZLE TO SCIENTISTS

Strange Work Left by Mound Builders Never Has Had Anything Like Satisfactory Explanation.

The Serpent Mound, near Chillicothe, Ohio, the strangest earthwork left by the Mound Builders, is one of the most striking and puzzling creations that is to be found in the Scioto River valley. Over all, the mound is more than 1,300 feet long, and depicts a serpent of several convolutions, jaws extended, and an oval within the grasp of the huge jaws. The groundwork is from two to four feet in height, and from three or four to 12 feet in thickness. Within the oval, beyond the extended jaws, archaeologists have found an altar of stones and copper ornaments.

An old Indian fighter who died in the West several years ago, nearly 100 years old, declared he had heard a story in his younger days of a tribe of strange Indians in the Scioto valley who each year held a fair festival and gave a great powwow on a snake's back. He said he never could understand the meaning of the story until later in life when he heard of the Mound Builders. His recollection of the story, had it been given to students of the mounds, might have served to give them new theories on which to base their research work. He said the strange race were supposed to sacrifice a certain number of children born under the first full moon of spring. For this the Mound Builders might have used the stone altar which has been found.

KENTUCKY

A BIG WIGGLE

Harding, candidate for the Presidency in 1920:

"No explanation ever may be made to excuse our lack of prudent preparations for our INEVITABLE part in the World War."

Senator Harding, as chairman of the Republican National Convention in 1916:

"No political party can draw a variable chart for our ship of state amid Europe's warring ambitions, lust for power or battles for self-preservation. Justice points the way through the safe channels of NEUTRALITY."

This was only ten months before America's entrance into the war, and the Republican platform adopted at its convention declared:

"We desire peace, the peace of justice and right, and believe in maintaining a straight and honest NEUTRALITY between the belligerents in the great war in Europe."

Did Senator Harding and his party solemnly declare for NEUTRALITY in the face of an INEVITABLE war? No! Candidate Harding has wiggled to what he considers a more favorable position.
